An architectural rendering of a park area. In the foreground, a woman with long blonde hair, wearing a patterned dress and a brown bag, is pushing a blue bicycle. To her right, a man in a red shirt and grey trousers is walking away. Further back, a woman in a black shirt is riding a bicycle. On the left, a man in a black jacket and jeans is walking. In the background, several other people are walking or sitting on a bench. The park features a paved path, a grassy area, and several trees with pink blossoms. A modern building is visible in the distance.
